Look please on the left side of the navigation bar for "my activities".

In "personal information" you may edit your data any time you want

"My messages" - here you can see messages received from other users or from Repokar

"Feedback" - there are shown all feedbacks, you sent or received

"Reviews" - if anybody will write a review to you or for your item, you can find it here

"My Paypal" - You can anytime change your paypal address and save it.

"My fees" - is the button only for sellers, there they can see the list of sold items and the sale fees they should pay

MY AUCTIONS

“My Auctions” is very important for sellers. There sellers see all of their active and sold or ended auctions. When one bought a car, the seller clicks “My sold items” and sees which car was sold and who is the buyer.

The screenshot shows the 'My Activities' section of the Repokar website. On the left is a navigation menu with the following items: Offers(0/0), Watching(1), Bidding(0), Outbid(0), Won(0), and Didn't win(0). The 'Outbid(0)' folder is highlighted. The main content area displays a table of auction entries. The table has columns for Image, Title, Price, Saved Date, and Action. One entry is visible with a 'Saved Date' of 2014-01-10 09:27:11 and a red 'X' in the Action column. Below the table are pagination links: First, Previous, 1, Next, Last. Three callout boxes provide explanations for the 'Outbid' and 'Didn't win' folders.

"Outbid"
Here you will see the list of auctions on which you are outbid, this means that someone else placed a bid higher than your bid. If the auction is still active you can any time bid again and still become a high bidder again. If auction ended already this means that you lost the auction and someone else won. Here you can view the history of the bidding process.

"Didn't win"
if you have an item in this folder it means that the auction of the car, you placed bids on, ended and you are not the winner.

In case if you are the winner of the auction, you will find the car in the "won" folder
